

Ban Animal Cruelty - Support Live Export Rally

We are asking to help us save another Australian industry from being destroyed. We need your support to educate main stream Australia on the consequences of banning live export from Australia. The ripple effect caused from banning live export will be catastrophic for Australia.

If your organization, business, company, family or friends are the casualties of the Live Export Ban or you support the need to raise awareness of the above-mentioned issue please be involved in the following:

Ban Animal Cruelty – Support Live Export Rally

Darwin City & Parliament House, 21st June 2011, 6am till 2pm

If there are any amendments to this time frame you will be contacted prior to the rally – this is why it is essential people RSVP. Please see below for contact details

Further information and RSVP:

As representation of the diverse range of commercial entities that the ban on live export has affected in Northern Australia we are asking participants to not bring protest banners, but to bring banners of their organisation, business, company, station and/or logo for display on the day.

For further information on this rally please contact either the Flying Fox Station office number on (08) 89774222, or email Helen Foster of Landmark Katherine at helen.foster@landmark.com.au

RSVP

To express your interest in participating in this rally and to receive an action plan for the day you must RSVP to helen.foster@landmark.com.au

Please be aware that the Ban Cruelty – Support Live Export Rally is a peaceful and family orientated rally. Behaviour that is violent, explicit or offensive is not welcome and will not be tolerated.

This is an opportunity to raise support and awareness, NOT CONFLICT.

Please feel free to display this information in you local businesses or circulate to friends – get the message out there!!
